TOM CAIN MAY BE THE POLICE CHIEF

Kelly Refuses to Talk and Jenkins Is Still on the Job.

It is understood that Tom Cain, formerly fire collector, may be named chief of police to succeed Ben F. Jenkins, the present incumbent.

Mayor C. E. Kelly had a long conference with Cain Friday morning, but when asked when he would name him chief said: "I am a man of some means. I do not believe he would want to be an officer. I have not offered him the place."

It has further been reported that the position was offered to Capt. J. R. Hughes, who commands the Texas state rangers, but he declined the position.

In the meantime Jenkins is on the job, having reported in full uniform earlier than usual on Friday morning and attended to the duties of the office all morning.

That a change is imminent is reported freely among "the ring" members, and there is a possibility that Jenkins may be inclined to discuss the proposition at this time.

FOGG FINED BECAUSE OF FIRE IN THEATER BASEMENT

Howard Potts, manager of the El Paso theater, was fined $10 in police court Thursday afternoon on a charge of violating the fire ordinance by allowing papers to be piled in the boiler room of the theater.

During the performance of "The Summer Girl" for the benefit of the Shriner's, a fire occurred in some papers in the basement. Fire chief W. W. Armstrong testified that he did not think the woodwork would have caught fire from the flames, because the ceiling of the room in which the paper was piled was 10 feet high.

Fog gave notice of appeal from the decision of the city recorder.

SAYS WATERS-PIERCE
FOOLED THE TEXANS

Witness Says Pierce-Fordyce and Waters-Pierce Virtually the Same.

St. Louis, Mo., March 1.—Charles M. Adams, former secretary of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, testifying at the oil hearing before special commissioner McDonald today, declared the Waters-Pierce company had been succeeded in Texas by the Pierce-Fordyce Oil association. But so far as he was aware the method of carrying on business had not been changed since Waters-Pierce dominated the situation.

The Waters-Pierce Oil company was ousted from Texas on the ground that it had violated the anti-trust laws. It was succeeded by the Pierce-Fordyce Oil association which bought the property of the Waters-Pierce at a foreclosure sale.

Adams' disclosure that the Waters-Pierce and Pierce-Fordyce corporations were virtually one, was brought out under cross examination by Daniel N. Kirby, one of the attorneys for the Standard Oil company, which is seeking to get control of the Waters-Pierce.

Adams says J. O. Stewart, secretary of the Pierce-Fordyce association, was drawing a salary as an employee of the Waters-Pierce company and that part of the business of the Texas concern was transacted at the Waters-Pierce offices in St. Louis. So far as Adams knew the Texas company did not pay rent for the use of the Waters-Pierce offices.

The present inquiry touches the question of whether there has been a severance of Standard Oil and its subsidiaries in accordance with the recent dissolution decree order of the supreme court of the United States.

That the stock of the Standard Oil company of Indiana is to be increased from $1,000,000 to $30,000,000 at the annual stockholders' meeting to be held soon at Whiting, Indiana, was disclosed in the testimony of Adams.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT
S.S.S. RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation—a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. Uric acid, an irritating, inflammatory accumulation, gets into the circulation because of physical irregularities, and then instead of nourishing and invigorating the body, the blood irritates and inflames the different nerves, tissues, muscles and joints, because of its impure, acrid condition. The pains and aches and other disagreeable and dangerous symptoms of Rheumatism can never be permanently cured until every particle of the cause is driven from the blood. S. S. S. does this because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, purifies and cleanses the circulation, invigorates the blood, and completely drives Rheumatism from the system. Plasters, liniments, soothing lotions, etc., may be used for the temporary relief and comfort they bring, but a cure cannot be effected until S. S. S. has removed the cause. It frees the blood of every impurity and makes it a rich, health sustaining fluid, to bring permanent relief and comfort to those who suffer with Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

SOME old-fashioned remedies are so good that they are as up-to-date as the most modern discoveries.

For instance, for a bad cold, there is no remedy that equals a glass of hot whiskey and water with lemon juice squeezed into it, just as you get into bed. Then wrap tight in the blankets and let Nature and perspiration throw the cold off.

Of course, the man who has a cold and keeps taking nips of whiskey all day long, just heating himself up and getting chilled again, isn't curing his cold—he's just trying to drown a "miserable feeling".

The fact that whiskey is bad in the long run for the "miserable feeling", doesn't take away from the fact that taken hot before going to bed, it's one of the best cold cures in the world.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is so free from tannic acid, fuel oil and other adulterants that it benefits the cold, without leaving harmful after-effects.

It's the best whiskey made,—so good that great physicians prescribe it when they prescribe alcohol.
